COAT OF ARMS

"Regnum et Gloria"

KINGDOM AND GLORY

LATIN-SPEAKING TERRITORIES, ~500 AD ONWARDS

LEGACY CERTIFICATE

House Rex

This certificate formally documents the ancestral lineage, heraldic identity, and family legacy of House Rex. The name originates from Latin-speaking territories, ~500 AD onwards, where these people served as Rulers, kings, and those who served royal courts. From Latin 'rex' (king) — a name borne by those of royal blood or in the king's service.

BLOODLINE JOURNEY

Rome and Italian peninsula (6th–8th centuries) → Norman kingdoms (Sicily, England) (11th–12th centuries) → England and Wales (13th–16th centuries) → Colonial territories (Americas, Africa) (17th–19th centuries)

The House of Rex carried the echo of crowns across continents, their bloodline forever marked by the language of emperors.

HERALDIC SYMBOLISM

Crown — Sovereignty and the divine right to rule · Lion — Courage, nobility, and the strength of royal lineage · Scepter — Authority and the mandate of office · Ermine — Purity of bloodline and the privilege of rank

YOUR FAMILY STORY — 9 CHAPTERS

Chapter I — The Purple Threshold
The Purple Threshold — 500 AD
Empire of Stone and Service
The Norman Conquest and its Favors
Plantagenet Courts and Whispered Alliances
The Tudor Ascendancy
Crowns and Colonies Across Seas
The Weight of Names
What the Bloodline Remembers

Gregory Osmond
FOUNDER, ANCESTORSQR

ANCESTORSQR
✦ An Ancestra Original ✦

Certificate No. ANCESTRA-MO38W1JP
Issued April 17, 2026
ancestorsqr.com